NEWS AND COMMENT.

The body of a man found near Coral Ridge, with his throat cut and clothes torn, has been identified as that of John Hart, of Louisville. Notwithstanding circumstances that pointed strongly to murder, it now seems conclusively proved that it was a case of suicide.

Frank Paul, one of Louisville's gamblers, was found guilty Saturday and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary, with a fine of $500.

The feeling in London is that the Boer war will go on for some time. Very little progress in pacification is expected.

CHINESE BOXERS

Will Have to Submit to the Demand of the Powers and Empress An's Decree.

THE PENALTY IS TO STAND

Latest Reports Show a Condition Promising and Encouraging to the Ministers and the World.

HOW THE CONDEMNED ARE TO DIE

Peking, Feb. 18.—It is now said, in semi-official circles, that the Empress Dowager is gradually weakening in regard to the demands of the powers. In an edict issued on February 16, which was communicated to the foreign ministers by the Chinese commissioners, she reiterates the sins of China, which she declares were committed because of the bad advice of the great ministers, who deserve the severest punishments demanded in the note of indictment of the ministers.

In the edict the Dowager Empress scores many high officials, and orders that Prince Tuan and Duke Lan must be banished for life to the borders of Turkestan, and that Prince Chang must commit suicide. In order to comply with the demand of the ministers for satisfactory proof that these punishments are carried out, the Empress Dowager in this edict declares that she will appoint a high minister of state to see that Prince Chang commits suicide.

In regard to Ya Hsien, the notorious ex-Governor of Shansi province, who personally killed numerous Christians, the empress in the decree says that he has fled to the province of Kanan, but he will be apprehended immediately and executed under the supervision of a high official who will be appointed for that purpose.

As to Yinlin, or Tienlin, and Chao Shu Chao, it is ordered that they shall be imprisoned while awaiting execution. Gen. Tung Fa Hsien is deprived of all his honors and will be relieved of his command.

In regard to Kung Yi, Li Peng Heng and Han Tung who are dead, the empress commands that all official honors shall be revoked, as a posthumous sentence, and that the punishments under the Chinese laws shall be visited on their families, as demanded by the ministers.

As to the two Chinese officials whose punishment was demanded by the ministers, and who are in the hands of the Japanese troops, the decree says that the court does not know of any evidence that warrants the infliction of the death punishment. However, the decree appoints Li Heng Chang and Prince Ching special commissioners to look into the matter, and to report fully as to the nature of the crimes of these two men.

While this decree does not comply fully with the demands of the ministers, it makes the punishment of certain officials more severe than was heretofore expected. The sentence of imprisonment while awaiting execution means simply what it says, but the appointment of commissioners to investigate the crimes of the two Chinese officials held by the Japanese as prisoners practically settles their cases. These commissioners can be trusted to picture them so black that the court will comply with the demand for their beheading.

Altogether the decree is very encouraging.

Right Hand—He Came to the City Today and Had Capt. Joe Fowler's Mad Stone Applied.

Mr. Willis Mitchell, a well known farmer of the Grahamville section, came to the city this morning to have Capt. Joe Fowler's mad stone applied to a painful wound on his right hand, inflicted by his dog yesterday.

The animal was sitting on the porch when Mr. Mitchell reached over and petted him on the head. He snarled, making serious allegations.

The animal afterwards snapped at Mrs. Mitchell three times, and then left home, and when search was made to kill him could not be found.

There is considerable excitement in the neighborhood, owing to the fact that there have recently been so many dogs supposed to be mad.

Capt. Joe's madstone stuck heroically to the wound.

DIYERSBURG IS EXCITED

Over a Fiendish Assault Which Promises to End in a Lynching, Also, by Night.

ATLANTA HAS A SENSATIONAL CRIME

Passengers into the city at noon from Memphis said this forenoon there was great excitement at Dyersburg, Tenn., and a mob was gathered to go to the city to hang a negro arrested for brutal assault on Miss Elsie Arnold, a daughter of Dr. W. J. Arnold, of that city.

Saturday night, it is said, a negro entered Miss Arnold's room and assaulted her with a hatchet, injuring her severely, but not fatally. Robbery was his purpose, and the negro assaulted the lady while she awoke. She was left unconscious and called to find herself in a pool of blood.

The city was aroused and bloodhounds were used and the trail was followed to the house of a negro named Fred King who was arrested and is said to have confessed and the hatchet was found. King was the house boy at the Arnold place and was not at all suspected.

A mob gathered last evening to hang Arnold, a would-be rapist, also in the Dyersburg jail, but at the request of Dr. Arnold took no action, agreeing to await his trial today.

The trial, it is said, was the occasion of the excitement today and it was thought a lynching would surely follow.

Later—King is still on trial. A lynching tonight is fully expected. The excitement is high.

Still later—A bulletin to The Sun, received at 3 o'clock, says King was taken from the jail by a mob, tried on the public square, and lynched. He implicated other negroes. One was caught and will be lynched also.

SECOND CLASS.

ANOTHER EFFORT ON FOOT TO TAKE A CENSUS AND GET IN

The Push—Mayor Lang Announces in Favor of Becoming a Second Class City.

The council meets tonight in regular session, and it is understood Councilman James Weille will introduce a resolution to take another census of Paducah in order to get the city into those of the second class, if the requisite 30,000 inhabitants are shown.

Mayor Lang was asked today if there would be any opposition to the plan.

"Not that I know of," he replied. "There will certainly be none from me. When I fought it last year, you know, my principal objection was that it was so near the taking of a federal census that I deemed it advisable to wait. If we showed 30,000 people in this federal census it would be imperative on the legislature to place us in the second class. If we did not, and had previously been admitted to the second class on a private census, if the federal census did not show it to be as much as 30,000, it would have been equally as imperative for the legislature to set us back."

"So you see I was right, and the money spent on the census was thrown away. Even if that census had shown 30,000 people, and the last legislature had placed us in the second class, we should now, just as we began to get used to the change as a result of the federal census, have to go back. You can well imagine what confusion this would have resulted in. After changing our government to conform to that of cities of the second class, which would be almost a revolutionary change, we should now have to go back where we started."

"That's the reason I opposed it before. I wanted to wait, and now that the federal census is over and there will be no other for ten years, I am in favor of it. Of course if we take the census now and pad it out a little," he concluded with a laugh, "they can't find it out on us, for it couldn't be long until we'd have to become a second class city, anyway."

COMING THURSDAY.

After the initiation there will be a social session, at which everything possible will be done for the entertainment of the visitors from the Egyptian city.

Cairo has twice entertained the Elks from Paducah, and it is hoped that Paducah will not be found wanting in hospitality when the Cairo Elks "come to town."

Paducah lodge will exert itself to show every courtesy to the visitors, and will no doubt do itself proud.

WHAT MEANS

The Report Which Today Comes From Pekin and the Allied Armies?

IS WAR TO BE RESUMED?

Von Walde sends Notification to Allies to be Ready to Move Forward.

REPORT LOOKS QUEER, TO SAY LEAST

Washington, Feb. 18.—Report comes from Pekin that Von Waldersee has sent notification to the allied armies to get ready to move forward on an eighty day expedition. No destination is named, however, but it is thought the objective point is Sian Su.

The foreign envoys believe its object to be to compel the Chinese to accept the terms of the "powers." It is thought that when it becomes known that the expedition has started the imperial court will hasten to comply immediately with all the demands of the joint note.

The military are much elated at the prospect of active service. Many believe the Chinese army will strive to the utmost to protect the province of Shen Si against invasion.

Command of the expedition will be offered to Sir Alfred Gaselee, the British commander, and if he declines, being ill, then to Gen. Voyron, the French commander.

Just what America will do is not apparent, but Gen. Chaffee will not move without instructions.

There are few comments from Europe, but the English press considers the order imperative and calculated to do more harm than good.

The fire department was called to Third and Broadway about 11 o'clock this morning by a false alarm.

Proprietor J. W. Hart, of the Hart house, on North Third street, is anxious to locate a young man named Roberts and his wife, who claimed to be from Memphis.

Over a week ago the woman came in and was followed by her husband the next day. He claimed to be an electrician, and they both remained at the hotel until last night.

This morning their door was locked. It was found upon investigation that the room was empty, the couple having thrown their luggage out the window and escaped under cover of darkness, some time during the night, in order to evade the payment of a $10 board bill.

THE REEVES BROTHERS

Had Been Commuted by Gov. Brown, Which Act the Court Now Recognizes.

Frankfort, Feb. 18.—The court recognizes Gov. Brown's commutation of the sentence of the Reeves brothers, escaped convicts recently re-arrested in Illinois. This recognition will let them out of the penitentiary in a few days, as they had only a few weeks to serve when they broke away. The decision of the court only has figure in the penalty of loss of good time because of the prisoners' escaping, as their time had been commuted.

NO HOPE FOR THEM.

MONDAY, FEB. 18, 1901.

New York bank deposits Saturday reached $1,011,349.03. The amount was never equaled before.

The next state to enter the union will probably be Oklahoma. Her population by the recent census was 399,245, which is more than that of either of the eight states of Idaho, Montana, Delaware, Nevada, North Dakota, Utah, Vermont or Wyoming.

Europe is anxious to know if King Edward is to be the ruler of England after the style Emperor Wilhelm rules Germany. This query is made strong in meaning because of the tie of blood between the two men and the attachment so plainly shown.

It would seem that some very important matters are to be left to go over by congress—the ship subsidy bill, the revenue taxation bill, the river and harbor bill and others. The two remaining weeks of the session may, however, dispose of these questions.

The Cuban constitutional convention, in committee of the whole, has taken up the question of relations with the United States. The majority of delegates oppose the granting of naval stations. The right of intervention is also strongly discussed, and will be continued.

Russia has issued a decree imposing increased duties on certain American imports into that country. The effect of the order will be to increase by 50 per cent the duties on American machinery, iron and steel goods. The decree comes in retaliation because of the countervailing duty on Russian sugar. The decree is merely a bluff and one which will not deepen in Russia than in this country.

A pretty legal fight to a finish is promised the state. The large railroad companies have presented a petition asking for a rehearing of the question of the right of the state board of valuation to certify to the counties interested in the franchise valuation of railroad property for local taxation. The board will decline to review its decision and the railroad companies will then petition in court for an injunction to forbid the petition. It is contended by the railroads that this franchise valuation amounts to almost confiscation.

IS THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY THE FRIEND OF THE POOR?

The Democrats have a hobby of endeavoring to pose as the poor man's friend. If there are any laws on the books that are beneficial to the poor man that have been placed there by the Democrats it has been so long ago that the acts have been forgotten. The greatest injury the poor people of this country have sustained in recent years was when the Democrats repealed the bill allowing the Southern growers a bounty on sugar. Before that time sugar was selling at 24 pounds for a dollar and the bounty was all paid to citizens of our own Southern country and operated as a menace in re-establishing that flourishing industry in the South. Yet the South is wedded to its prejudice, and many of the poor people in the South are deluded into thinking that the Democratic party is exclusively the poor man's party.

Take the situation locally as regards Kentucky. Notwithstanding the fact that the Democrats have been in control of this state continuously for years, not one law has been enacted that would indicate they are the friends of the poor man. Other states have laws taxing inheritances, and it is a well established fact that the state has the exclusive power to tax incomes, yet not a law has ever been introduced tending in this direction.

It has been boldly proclaimed by leaders high in the councils of the party that the corporations have been making friends with the Democratic party of the state in the last two years. That an understanding exists can not be doubted, when the issues of the last campaign are compared to those in 1899. In '99 the only issue was the L. and N. railroad and condemnation of corporations; in 1900 not a word was uttered about the L. and N. railroad or about corporations; hence the claim that an understanding exists that an understanding exists.

past four years. They believe in protecting the accumulations of all men; they believe in fostering the industries of our country, giving employment to workmen and making profitable the investments of the capitalists; they think that a prosperous country depends both upon capital and labor, and what is beneficial to one is a benefit to both.

If the young men of this country will cease to be Democrats because their fathers and grandfathers were, and study the political history of the country and note the prosperity under Republican rule and the degeneracy under the Democratic rule; if they will realize that time changes conditions and new issues are born daily, they will realize that to study the history of the parties means mere Republicanism.

The South is the coming section of the country. When it unites its prejudices, thinks for itself and acts accordingly, it will assume the position commercially speaking that has always belonged to it.

WOMEN AND PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Some New York ladies of leading families have set an example that others of their sex elsewhere could follow with great pleasure and benefit to the children.

The New York women have, at their solicitation, been appointed public school inspectors, and have announced their intention of accepting the positions and of giving their full time to the duties imposed, not for the money the work will bring them, but for that they will see in their duty the children of the schools.

Fathers may possibly be all right, but it cannot be denied that the mothers would the destinies of the child. This being the case, why should not women have something to say touching the conduct of the primary schools? The father forgets the trials of his own youth, and looks upon the peccadilloes of his son with an uncharitable eye. He only considers his own capabilities and measures the shortcomings of his boy in comparison.

The mother understands the matter better, and the son is gradually brought up to an understanding of his responsibilities.

In this connection it is to be hoped the two New York women will go into the public schools of that state and fight the follies that exist there, as if they are patterned after the common schools of Kentucky.

They must insist upon unloading the curriculum of teaching only practical matters and those thoroughly. They must demand reasonable hours in the schoolroom for the children, and the careful guarding of their health through well ventilated rooms and carefully watched sanitary conditions.

Reform in the public schools is one of the necessities, and women can do more to accomplish this than men, for they better understand the nature and capacity of children.

VIRUS FOR TYPHOID.

Dr. Carley, a surgeon in the British army, shows that the inoculation of hospital staffs going to South Africa practically gave protection against typhoid and enteric fever. He says the best results were obtained when the inoculation was performed at least twice, and they present very strong evidence in favor of the protective power of the inoculations when carefully performed, and also the necessity for two inoculations at suitable intervals. During the five months that the hospital was stationed at Kromaatst there were 93 admissions of enteric fever with eleven deaths. Of the 92 cases 15, said that they had been inoculated, and of the 11 deaths one occurred in a patient who had been inoculated once. The attacks of typhoid fever, as a rule, were much milder in the inoculated than the non-inoculated patients, and with the former the duration of the disease was shorter.

Dr. Carley says that the injections of virus were made in the flank and were followed in from two to ten hours by marked symptoms, both local and constitutional, that lasted from two to five days. In many cases the symptoms were as severe after the second as after the first inoculation. This would seem to show that it takes more than ten days before any immunity is established. In a particular case of nurses and others who were inoculated twice and served five months at Kromaatst, where many cases of typhoid and enteric fever were under treatment, there was not a single case of typhoid fever. Another corps of 82 persons that were inoculated but once had two cases of typhoid fever and one death. A third corps of twenty persons, being carefully inoculated, escaped without a single case.

A BOLD CONSPIRACY

LEE WALTERS ARRESTED FOR ALLEGED FALSE SWEARING

In the "Tex" Sprague Case—Warrant issued by Judge Sanders Upon Confession of Henry Foley.

Lee Walters, a young man who formerly resided near Little Cypress, Marshall county, and figured as the alleged intended victim in two different "attempted assassinations, in which a shot gun was discharged through a window into a bed which Walters had, strange to say, "just vacated a short time before," was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Gus Rogers Saturday night, at his home near Blanton's Mill, for swearing falsely in the "Tex" Sprague case.

The story reads like a romance in which bold men plot to ruin their neighbors by all sorts of diabolical deeds and evil machinations. It smacks of the Sherlock Holmes or Nick Carter variety of fiction.

Attorney Will Bradshaw, son of Prosecuting Attorney Bradshaw, appears in the role of detective in the case.

Hint to go back to the beginning. "Tex" Sprague moved to Marshall county, from the upper part of the state, a few years ago, and began to war fat and prosper. He seemed to arouse the ill-will of some of his neighbors, and the feeling against him finally culminated in a fight with one Vernon Blewett, who was out in the melee.

One of the main witnesses against Sprague was Leo Walters. Sprague was threatened with lynching and for a time could not be found, but he returned to stand trial and was fined $500 for cutting Blewett.

Then Walters one day started the neighborhood by declaring that a load of buckshot had been fired through a window into his pillow. The demolished window and lead perforated pillow were there to prove it.

It happened he was not using the pillow at the time. He claimed he saw by the flash of the gun that "Tex" Sprague, who, by this time, had accumulated considerable renown as a desperado, fired the shot, and Sprague was arrested for it and in time fined $75. Walters and Blewett have since both moved to this county, and Blewett recently secured a judgment in the circuit court here against Sprague for $150 in a $2,000 damage suit for injuries received in the cutting affray.

Thus matters rested until a short time ago, when, in December, John Foley, who lives near Sprague, let fall a random bit of information in Attorney Bradshaw's office which resulted in a subsequent confession that his brother, Henry Foley, was hired by Walters to fire the shot through the window into the pillow.

Saturday Henry Foley came to the city to see his son, who is in jail charged with stealing some property at Decker's mill, and the attorney succeeded in getting a confession from him that he was induced by Walters to fire the shot. He gave away the whole facts, showing up a conspiracy to get rid of Sprague. He confessed that Walters, whom he owed money, agreed to wait and take it out of his crop, in consideration for following out instructions relative to the shooting. He was to shoot through the window into the pillow, Walters and his family being in the next room. This he did. Young Foley, at the jail, corroborated his father to the extent that he left home on that night with a gun and when he returned said he had shot into Walters' house. He claims he did not know why he had been employed to do it, but when the charge against Sprague was tried in the courts, he failed to turn up and tell what he knew. A warrant was immediately sworn out before Judge Sanders charging Walters with false swearing. He yesterday executed bond in the sum of $700 for his appearance at Benton in answer to the charge of false swearing, the alleged offense having been committed in Marshall county.

CADIZ' RAILROAD OUTLET.

It would seem, after many years of unnecessary delay, Cadiz is really to have railroad connection with the outside world by means of a "branch" line.

The people of Cadiz, who last week opened subscriptions for a $20,000 bonus to a company which promised to build the branch, have pledged the sum and the line is to be incorporated. The work of construction is to begin within sixty days and ere fall the line is expected to be in use. It has not yet been settled just where the line will get an outlet, but it is reasonable to conclude it will go to Hopkinsville.

FOR MALARIA, CHILLS AND FEVER.

The Best Prescription Is Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.

The Formula Is Plainly Printed on Every Bottle. So That the People May Know Just What They Are Taking.

Imitators do not advertise their formula knowing that you would not buy their medicine if you knew what it contained. Grove's contains Lion and Quinine put up in correct proportions and is in a Tasteless form. The Iron acts as a tonic while the Quinine drives the malaria out of the system. Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is the Original and that all other so-called "Tasteless" chill tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. You are not experimenting when you take Grove's—its superiority and excellence having long been established. Grove's is the only Chill Cure sold throughout the entire malarial sections of the United States. No Cure, No Pay. Price, 50c.

PLANTATION CHILL CURE is Guaranteed.

PADUCAH "MAIDS" TO DELIGHT RESIDENTS IN GRAVES' CAPITAL TONIGHT.

Tonight the "Old Maids of Paducah," composed of charming Paducahians, are to appear before a Mayfield audience. The "Maids" and their friends will go out on the 6 o'clock train and come home on the midnight passenger. There promises to be a goodly party, special rates and an enjoyable time being assured.

All that is needed is a pleasant evening and this is the prediction.

RAILROAD NEWS.

It is rumored that the Illinois Central contemplates enlarging its bridge at Cairo, Ill., in order to run a double track over it.

Yesterday morning train No. 103, from Louisville to Memphis, passed through Paducah in four sections and left Fulton in eight. The three extra sections were Raymond-Whitcomb special trains of eight coaches each, en route south. The first was in charge of Conductor Kinkle and Engineer Grogan; the second of Conductor Haselmond and Engineer Gill, and the last Conductor Anderson and Engineer Eaker. They arrived at 5:05, 5:35 and 7:15 o'clock respectively.

A Jimmy train got off the track at Cumberland river last night but did no damage of consequence.

This evening a special coach of ladies and gentlemen who go to Mayfield to give the "Old Maids" return, will be attached to the 6 o'clock train. It is expected forty or fifty will be in the party. They will return at 1:30 in the morning.

The pay train will arrive Wednesday morning and pay off all Illinois Central employees.

Yesterday morning's St. Louis train, due at 7:30, was delayed about eight hours by striking some cars at Carterville, Ill. It was brought over at 3:30 with the afternoon St. Louis train, both arriving at the same time.

Mr. Brooks, superintendent of the Illinois Central's water supply, is in the city.

IN THREE WRECKS

DR. FRANK BOYD HAS SOME THRILLING ESCAPES ON HIS WAY HOME FROM MEXICO.

Dr. Frank Boyd returned yesterday from Guadalajara, Mexico, where he went several weeks ago on a visit to Mr. W. C. Ellis. He left Mr. Ellis improving. The latter will leave Mexico about April 1st for Asheville, N. C., to spend a couple of months before coming home.

Dr. Boyd's trip home amounted in narrow escapes. He left Mexico City a week ago today. Not being in the least superstitious, he purchased some opals before he started.

About the first night out the train was wrecked, and he did his utmost to go through one end of the sleeper headfirst. He was not seriously hurt—but thought of the opals. He overcame his impulse to throw them out the window, and further on the train hit a freight train and they all had narrow escapes again.

He still congealed his desire to part company with the opals. In New Orleans there were seven of them en route to the Illinois Central depot in a box when the vehicle was struck by an L. & N. train and badly wrecked. Dr. Boyd escaped by backing through a window.

He reached home safe, but is giving the opals away to his friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hughes leave Wednesday for Tinseltown to join Mr. Ellis.

The Pace Tells

The wear and tear and strain of modern life are concentrated upon the nervous system. So long as the nerves are strong and well nourished the wheels of life move on without friction or noise. But, when the brain cells and nerve tissues are used up faster than they are repaired, not only the nerves, but every organ in the body cries out for help. Headache, backache, disordered digestion, heart troubles, congestion, nervousness, neuralgia, irritation, insomnia and melancholy, run rampant in the helpless system, destroying whatever strength remains, until at last the break-down comes and then—

"Overwork and close confinement wore out my nerves and I was overcome with nervous prostration. A stroke of apoplexy added to my suffering and for many months I was a helpless invalid. Failing to get help from my physician I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine. The first bottle helped me a little; with the second I noticed marked improvement and six bottles restored me to health."

I. M. COUCH, Anthony, Kans.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

is doing a world of good for weak, run-down, helpless and dependent victims of overtaxed nerves and exhausted vitality. It cures when other remedies fail.
